JOIN THE ST. BARNABAS SOCIETY

St. Paul—the Church's first "distance educator"—brought the truth of Christ to everyone, regardless of background, and despite persecution and hardship. He challenged himself and those he encountered to embrace the teachings of Jesus, and he formed others to spread the Gospel worldwide.

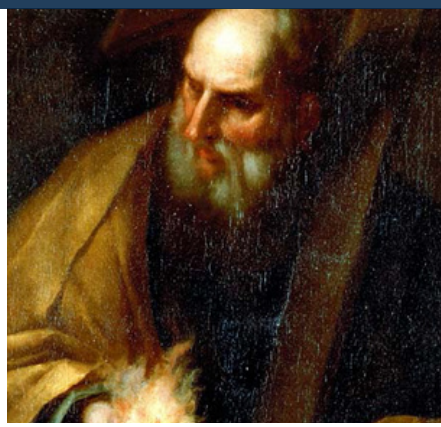

But Paul didn't do it alone. St. Barnabas, the "Son of Encouragement", vouched for the suspicious new convert Paul, sold his own property to fund the mission, and journeyed with him, working together to build the Church. Inspired by St. Barnabas's bold "yes" to the Holy Spirit, Catholic International University launches the St. Barnabas Society, our exclusive leadership-level annual giving circle.

The St. Barnabas Society at Catholic International University emulates St. Barnabas' steadfast support for the work of education and evangelization. Members commit a minimum annual gift of $10,000 for at least three years.

As a member, you become an insider, fueling the mission of the world's only fully online Catholic university. Your partnership directly advances faithful higher education to form the men and women who will tackle the challenges of our time, spreading the message of Christ in their families, parishes, workplaces and communities near and far—just like St. Barnabas.

Exclusive Member Benefits (includes spouses):

- Invitations to Private Online Talks with top CatholicIU faculty and field-leading experts. Join from anywhere, ask questions, and discuss profound Catholic topics in an intimate setting.
